ACCESS RESOURCES

Working with students requesting accommodations under The Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA)

IT STARTS WITH YOU

Access Resources encourages independence and self-advocacy while providing students equal access to the curriculum, services and activities available at Colby-Sawyer.

Your academic partnership with Access Resources begins when you schedule a meeting with a Learning Specialist who will work with you to self-advocate, find your strengths and provide support as you reach your academic and personal goals.

During the initial meeting, a Learning Specialist will collaborate with you to provide reasonable accommodations for your success. Learning Specialists are available on a weekly basis to help you organize your work, manage your time, and define your tutoring and testing needs.

Additional services include proctored testing with accommodations for students with disabilities and temporary medical impairments. Access Resources also offers short-term lending of Livescribe™ pens, access to speech-to-text software, books in alternate format, screen readers and noise-cancelling headphones.

You can also request medical housing and parking accommodations.

WHEN TO MEET: IT'S UP TO YOU

You are encouraged to meet with Access Resources early, often and when it feels right for you.

As a prospective student, you may want to schedule a meeting with Access Resources before applying for admission, or you may want to wait until your acceptance to the college. When you schedule a meeting, your documents can be reviewed and potential accommodations discussed.

Current students may also apply for accommodations any time during enrollment at Colby-Sawyer.

Visit colby-sawyer.edu/access-resources for Access Resources' guidelines, documentation and additional information.
