Community Advisor: Fall 2014

The Community Advisor (CA) position is for students who are interested in working with their peers in the off-campus residential communities. Living cohesively with apartment housemates is an essential part of the off-campus CA’s role. CAs assist off-campus residents with a variety of concerns and make referrals to other campus resources as needed.

There are three Community Advisor positions. Each CA will receive compensation of $1400 per semester.

To meet the minimum qualifications applicants must:

- Qualify to live in the off-campus residential community
- Must have and maintain a 2.3 cumulative grade point average;
- Must maintain full-time student status (12 credits per semester).

We’re looking for someone:

- With a strong record of leadership at Colby-Sawyer
- With a commitment to Colby-Sawyer community values and standards
- To be a liaison between the residents in off-campus residential communities and the Parent and Community Partnership Coordinator and communicate needs, concerns, suggestions in a prompt manner.
- To rotate weekend on-call duties to include being available via cell phone throughout the weekend, be within 45 minutes of the college, and to be in your residence and available in case of emergency from 8pm-8am.

Compensation: $1400 per semester
Community Advisor Job Description Fall 2014 (Tentative)

1. Role Model
   a. Personally uphold community standards as outlined by college policy and the Code of Community Responsibility;
   b. Work to develop a sense of trust and sincerity between staff and students;
   c. Support and celebrate diverse people and lifestyles;

2. Safety and Security
   a. Intentional connections with off-campus residential students
   b. Proactively communicate college policies as outlined in the Code of Community Responsibility, community standards, and town ordinances to your residents;
   c. Record and refer violations of the code of Community Responsibility and applicable community standards to the Parent and Community Partnerships Coordinator.
   d. Encourage students to take responsibility for their actions.
   e. Serve on the on-call staff member rotation to check in with students and be available as a resource for social functions.
      • On-call duties to include being available via cell phone throughout the weekend, being within 45 minutes of the college, and to be in your off-campus residence and available in case of emergency from 8pm-8am.
      • Check-In with each social function around 8pm to review the expectations for the Social Function, answer any questions they may have and let them know you’re a response if they need anything throughout the night. Then go to campus safety to sign-off on the social registrations form indicating you have done so.
      • During the social function follow-up to see how things are going with the event.

3. Emergency response
   a. Be familiar with emergency protocols and intervene in crisis situations as directed;
   b. Inform the Parent and Community Partnerships Coordinator of all emergency situations occurring in your building(s) as quickly as possible;
   c. When necessary, contact Campus Safety regarding the emergency situation.

4. Administrative tasks
   a. Attend meetings with Parent and Community Partnerships Coordinator as scheduled;
   b. Attend professional development trainings as deemed necessary.
   c. Coordinate the documentation of students that will be staying in their assigned off-campus residence during college breaks.
   d. Assist with building openings and closings;
   e. Hold duplex meetings as needed, including at least one at the beginning of each semester.
   f. Assist in structuring and be present at the monthly tenant council meeting
   g. Actively promote on-campus programs, including RA programing
   h. Communicate information to your residents as passed on to you by Parent and Community Partnerships Coordinator.
   i. Complete any additional administrative tasks as designated by the Parent and Community Partnerships Coordinator

5. General
   a. Support efforts to help other people (faculty, parents, alumni and administrators) understand student life in off campus housing;
   b. Share input for policymaking and implementation with the Parent and Community Partnerships Coordinator. This should include constructive criticism as well as new ideas;
   c. Failure to fulfill job responsibilities and/or any violations of the Code of Community Responsibility, or State laws is grounds for termination.