ANNUAL REPORT OF GIFTS

JULY 1, 2008 THROUGH JUNE 30, 2009
The Colby-Sawyer College community is honored to share this 2009 Annual Report of Gifts. At the same time, we salute the spirit in which each gift to the college was made, and the many ways you were all inspired to make a difference. Especially in these challenging economic times, philanthropy and your support of the Annual Fund make a profound difference, and are essential for the college’s continued vitality. When you choose to make a gift to the Annual Fund, you make an investment in today’s students and Colby-Sawyer’s future. You help to expand academic excellence and opportunities for rich discovery beyond the classroom. A gift to the Annual Fund strengthens scholarships, athletics, student life, faculty development, and more. We gratefully acknowledge the extraordinary generosity of alumni, parents and friends with each annual and special purpose contribution that is listed on the following pages, and we thank you for contributing to Colby-Sawyer College’s most successful annual giving campaign ever. Your support truly energizes our campus community, ensures our future success, and allows us to dream about exciting new possibilities. We hope you will be inspired to continue to make a difference in the lives of our students by joining us with an Annual Fund gift this year, and thank you for making the college a philanthropic priority.
January 2010

Dear Alumni, Parents and Friends of Colby-Sawyer College,

I learned much about the importance of education, and of philanthropy to education, from my father; however, my mother taught me an even more basic lesson. My mother was a gentle and loving person from whom I learned many wonderful things. When I was about ten years old, we left a store together during the holiday season and she stopped to drop some money into a box for people who needed some help over the holidays. “Why did you do that?” I asked. She stopped, looked at me, and said: “Because it does a good thing for someone else and it fills my spirit at the same time.”

To all of you who have supported Colby-Sawyer with your generous gifts this past year, your spirits should be very full because you have done much good for our wonderful college. Your gifts have made education possible for 1,000 young people. You have provided our students with scholarships without which they would not have been able to attend Colby-Sawyer. You have supported the teaching, scholarship, creative work and development of our outstanding faculty. You have made significant and generous gifts to help us move forward in realizing our dreams of a new arts center and a new Windy Hill School.

Notably, 2009 was a year in which the economy in general, and higher education in particular, faced grave challenges. Yet, for Colby-Sawyer, your commitment, loyalty, and dedication were steadfast. In the most challenging economy since the Great Depression, both total giving and the Annual Fund surpassed 2007–2008. Your participation remains as valuable this year, and I hope you will continue to make a difference. While we are deeply thankful for each and every gift, we invite those alumni who have not supported the Annual Fund recently to join us with a gift this year, to help make a difference that will have an immediate impact on our campus and transform our students’ education.

Your generous support in our 2008–2009 fiscal year was no less than incredible. Our college community is both honored and grateful. I very much hope in this new year of 2010 that your spirits are full, because you have certainly filled ours.

Gratefully,

Thomas C. Galligan Jr.
President and Professor of Humanities

January 2010

Dear Friends:

This report celebrates the commitment of each individual who chose to financially support Colby-Sawyer College during the 2009 fiscal year. During the past year, as the economy remained in a decline, it was the remarkable, combined generosity of thousands of alumni, parents and friends that helped to sustain and to enrich opportunities for students.

Every gift of every amount inspired us to work even harder for our students. With generous gift support, Colby-Sawyer was able to add faculty, to increase financial aid, to encourage professional development, to increase the diversity of the student body, to broaden the curriculum with new study-abroad options and a new major, to expand co-curricular programming, to renovate a building, to expand campus housing options, and more. For all that each gift has made possible, we are grateful.

Whether or not you supported Colby-Sawyer last year, I hope you will consider a gift to a project at the college that particularly interests you this year. When you make a gift to the college, you partner with faculty and staff on campus in New London to accomplish the awesome responsibility of preparing students to lead fulfilling lives in a global society. For this, we truly thank you.

Sincerely,

Elizabeth A. Cahill

Vice President for Advancement
Class Agents 2008–2009

Colby-Sawyer’s class agents are an essential link between the college and its alumni constituency. During our fiscal year, class agents help keep their classmates connected to the college and informed through letters, phone calls and e-mails as they encourage participation in the Annual Fund. The following alumni served as class agents for the 2009 Colby-Sawyer Fund, and we extend our grateful thanks for their commitment to this important work.

The Cupola Club

The Cupola Club recognizes our generous young alumni.
Named for the structure atop Colgate Hall, one of the oldest and most enduring campus symbols, the cupola represents our most recent graduates and their importance to the future of the college. All young alumni are welcomed into the Cupola Club upon making a gift to the Annual Fund. This year we are pleased to recognize gifts from members of the classes of

Colby-Sawyer College Annual Report

July 1, 2008 through June 30, 2009

^Deceased
Alumni Donors

Colby-Sawyer College depends upon the generous support of its alumni to sustain our excellence. The following class lists recognize all alumni who have made gifts to the Annual Fund and/or for Capital and Endowment purposes during the period July 1, 2008, through June 30, 2009. An asterisk denotes five or more years of consecutive giving. Annual Fund gifts are unrestricted or restricted for current use and support the college's educational and co-curricular programs. These gifts are expendable within the fiscal year in which they are received. Capital and Endowment gifts are contributions received by the college for equipment, new and renovated facilities, special program support, and for endowed and memorial funds. Leadership societies and giving clubs are recognized and included in the Annual Fund lists. The class dollar and participation totals noted for each class pertain to the 2009 Annual Fund.

Faculty and Staff Donors

Colby-Sawyer College is grateful to faculty and staff for personally investing in the school they work so hard to support in other ways. The Annual Fund provides resources that both help the college to maintain current expenses and that allow it to respond to opportunity. Thank you for your support and for making Colby-Sawyer one of your philanthropic priorities.

Gifts-In-Kind

Gifts-in-kind are non-cash gifts of tangible personal property. A gift-in-kind may also be a service or other donated items. Many of those gifts are received for special fundraisers to benefit athletics or student activities. The Colby-Sawyer community appreciates the in-kind gifts made in 2008–2009 from these generous donors.

Friends of the Library

In 1967 a group of New London area summer residents founded the Friends of the Library to support what is now the Susan Colgate Cleveland Library/ Learning Center. In addition to raising funds to enhance our library, the Friends support several programs throughout the year that are open and free to the public. The college is grateful for the endurance of support of the Friends of the Library.

Ways to Give to Colby-Sawyer College

Gifts come to Colby-Sawyer in a variety of meaningful and important ways that can be tailored to the needs of the donor(s). Several of these gift vehicles typically yield attractive tax benefits. Listed below are opportunities you may wish to consider in contributing to sustaining the strength and excellence of the college now and in the future.

Cash
Gifts of cash are deductible up to 50 percent of a donor's adjusted gross income (AGI). Any excess can be carried over for five years.

Deferred Gifts
Deferred gifts may bring donors several benefits, including income for life or for a term of years, income for a second beneficiary, and reductions in income, capital gains, gift, or estate taxes. These gifts take many forms, including annuities, remainder trusts, life insurance, and bequests.

Gifts-in-Kind
Tangible personal gifts, such as art objects, jewelry, silver and antiques can be donated to the college for educational purposes or for resale. Tax deductibility will vary. Personal property may also be contributed to fund a trust, which will produce income for the donor and help the donor to avoid or reduce taxes.

IRA Assets
IRAs are subject to estate tax if left to individuals other than a spouse. If you name a charity such as Colby-Sawyer as beneficiary, all taxes are avoided.

Matching Gifts
Corporate matching gift programs allow an employee or retiree to potentially double or triple a gift to Colby-Sawyer. Typically, the employee obtains a company form and submits it to the college with his/her contribution. Please check with your human resources department for more information.

Real Estate
Gifts of real estate may be made to the college outright, in whole or in part, through transfer in a bargain sale, or to fund a gift annuity or unitrust. In some circumstances, donors may also contribute real estate to the college while reserving the right to occupy the property during their lifetime. Each approach has specific estate and tax benefits.

Securities
Gifts of appreciated stocks (including mutual funds), bonds, and other securities may offer considerable capital gains tax savings.

Thank you again for this year's impressive results: $1.6 million in annual gifts, and $6.2 million in total realized gifts and commitments to the college. The Class of 2013 is the largest class in the college's rich history. Over 90 percent of these 450 students will depend on scholarship support to make a Colby-Sawyer degree a reality.
