Monday November 14th

Global Puzzle and Raffle to Win a Kindle! Students participate in completing a puzzle of the world over the course of the week. For each puzzle piece, students earn raffle ticket. Students will also earn a raffle ticket for attending any of the IEW events. Raffle drawing for Kindle will occur on Friday November 18th.

Wesson Research Reports: Issues in the Asia-Pacific Region
12:30—1:45 pm, Alumni Lounge, Ware Campus Center
- Two honors students will present findings from Idea Fund summer research projects conducted in China and Malaysia. Introduction by Professor Eric Boyer.
- Pengxiang Ding: Survey Results of Chinese Perceptions of Americans
- Shu Wen Teo: The Meaning of Democracy in Malaysia

“The Anatomy of Hate: A Dialogue to Hope”
7:00 pm, Wheeler Hall, Ware Campus Center
"The Anatomy of Hate: A Dialogue to Hope". In the hope of generating a dialogue to help create a world less divided, this film offers a starting point by exploring the biological, sociological and psychological mechanisms present in so many acts of war, violence and contention. Includes post-screening talkback with director/producer Mike Ramsdell.

Tuesday November 15th

“Crossing Borders,” a film by Arnd Wächter
7:00 pm, Wheeler Hall, Ware Campus Center

This documentary follows four Moroccan and four American university students as they travel together through Morocco and, in the process of discovering “The Other,” how they discover themselves. A powerful film about intercultural understanding. Discussion will follow film.

These programs are sponsored by the Office of International and Diversity Programs in collaboration with the Wesson Honors Program and Cultural Events Committee.
Colby-Sawyer College’s
International Education Week
November 14—18, 2011

Wednesday November 16th

“Leo’s Room,” a film by Enrique Buchichio

7:00 pm, Wheeler Hall, Ware Campus Center

This film from Uruguay (in Spanish with English subtitles) about an affable but troubled and reclusive college student is an affirming drama that presents a unique vision of isolation and coming-of-age set against a modern tale of romance and friendship - in the cultural context of Montevideo, Uruguay. Hosted by Professor Randy Hanson.

Thursday November 17th

Culture of Peace: a presentation and discussion with David Adams

3:30—5:00 pm, Alumni Lounge, Ware Campus Center

Dr. David Adams, Emeritus Professor of Psychology at Wesleyan University and Former UNESCO Director, will discuss his blueprint for our transition from a global culture of war to a culture of peace, including a plan for putting this into action over the next few decades. Dr. Adams has specialized in research on the brain mechanisms of aggressive behavior, the evolution of war, and the psychology of peace activists.

World Fusion and Contemporary Jazz with Randy Armstrong and Venezuelan percussionist Jose Duque

7:30 pm, Wheeler Hall, Ware Campus Center

Randy Armstrong and Jose Duque believe that music has the power to transform and uplift people from all walks of life. Their music draws from sources as diverse as mainstream American jazz, Native American flute playing, West African drumming and North Indian sitar motifs – all blended by the ingenious combination of acoustic, high-tech, synthesized technology. Come see a vibrant performance of original fusion music played on a spectacular array of instruments from around the world!

These programs are sponsored by the Office of International and Diversity Programs in collaboration with the Wesson Honors Program and Cultural Events Committee.