CLOSE BY

While students can find just about everything they need in New London's shops and businesses—whether it's groceries, eye glasses, clothing, books or dorm room accessories—there are more options available in either direction on Interstate 89.

The capital city of Concord, 25 minutes south of New London, is a popular place to catch a movie, shop, dine, go bowling and attend events and performances. Independent and chain restaurants are plentiful, as are big-name retailers such as Best Buy, TJ Maxx and Marshalls, Target, Walmart, Burlington Coat Factory, LL Bean, Bed Bath and Beyond, and others.

Lebanon is 25 minutes north of New London and offers most of the same options. Its neighbor, Hanover, is home to Dartmouth College and many independent shops and restaurants.

The Dartmouth Coach leaves daily from New London with round trips to Boston's South Station and 42nd Street in New York City.

The Colby-Sawyer campus is surrounded by miles of hiking and biking trails with easy access to skiing, lakes and outdoor recreation.
